(In Chairman's Secretary read the following

Statement

Whereas under the provisions of Chapter 137 of the General Laws of 1865 the Voters of this State will on next year vote upon the question of Extension of the right of Suffrage to the Colored men residing in this State; and

Whereas upon the Canvass of the returns of said election by the State Board of Canvassers it appeared that there were (5,265) five thousand two hundred and sixty four votes Cast on said question against Extension of the right of Suffrage to Colored persons; and

Whereas, the Supreme Court of the State of Connecticut did on the 24th day of March A.D. 1866 decide that by that said Section 2 of Chapter 137 of the General Laws of 1865 was void

Whereas Lorrin Stanchfield Governor of the State of Connecticut do proclaim, for the information of the voters, that the said section 2 of Chapter 137 of the General Laws of 1865, as follows, "declaring, every male citizen "twenty one years of age, who shall have resided in this State for one year next preceding "any election shall be deemed a qualified elector at such "election and eligible to hold any office in the State, subject "however to the regulations contained in Sections 2, 3, 4 & 5. "and 6, of the Constitution of this State."

— is by the decision of the Supreme Court aforesaid declared to be a void law and in full force. — It is with great satisfaction that I announce this decision to the people, for by it the Colored resident portion of the State is declared that no citizen of this State is now disfranchised the privilege of the Ballot box by reason of the color of his skin.

(In testimony whereof I have caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed to these presents and have signed the same with my hand at the City of Hartford this first day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty six and of the Independence of the United States the ninety first.
